

FIRST BREAK IN STRIKERS' RANKS

PHILADELPHIA LABOR TIE-UP BEGINS TO WEAKEN TODAY.

BRICKLAYERS ARE THROUGH

Twenty-two Hundred of Them Notify Managers They Are Through With Strike.

Philadelphia, Pa., March 22.—The first big break in the ranks of the general strikers came this morning when twenty-two hundred bricklayers notified their employers that they were ready to return to work.

Still Running.
The street cars are still running, each day seeing more cars in operation. Many are without any passengers and all are guarded by officers and manned by strikebreakers who are heavily armed.

Think It About Over.
The city officials state today that they expect other unions which went out on the sympathetic strike will return to work now that the ice has been broken and they feel the end of trouble is in sight.

Still on Duty.
The state constabulary is still on strike duty in the city and extra policemen are being kept at all the stations ready for any emergency calls from threatened districts.

Drastic Work.
The most drastic attack so far made by the police upon the strikers occurred after the attempt by the strikers to hold an open air meeting in the basement park. This was forbidden by the police and the strikers, some 10,000 strong, turned back with the cry "On to the city hall!"

Police Charged.
They marched down Broad street, breaking car windows and fighting the police. At Broad and Spring Garden

Wagner's Popularity.
That Pittsburgh is baseball crazy every one knows, and one wonders how far the craze will go when one finds for sale in an image shop on Wythe avenue, among the figures of saints and martyrs, little plaster casts of Hans Wagner in baseball regalia. That the limit is reached, indeed, when, as happened the other day, a small boy comes to the public library and insists on taking out on his card "Fairy Tales, by Hans Wagner."

CITY OFFICIALS GENTLY GRILLED

BY CONGREGATIONAL YOUNG MEN'S CLUB.

POLICE HELD BLAMELESS

And Responsibility for Lax Conditions Placed on Administration and Finally on General Public.

Alderman H. W. Brown, who was to have furnished "double information" about City and County Affairs from an administrative standpoint was absent from the meeting of the Young Men's Club of the Congregational church last evening and Clerk of Court Jesse Earle, leader of the discussion—and "a wit and czar" according to President Charles W. Reeder—announced that the absence was said to be ill and that no doubt this was true. A medical examination to ascertain whether or not Mr. Brown was suffering with "cold feet" had been suggested.

Judge Not a Czar.

While acknowledging the logic of the Elbert Hubbard maxim: "It never pays to explain," Municipal Judge Charles L. Fifield took up and examined some of the popular misconceptions regarding the powers and duties of his office. He showed by numerous concrete illustrations how the statutes definitely determine what are crimes and the punishment thereof—and how the court is bound by the limitations thus laid down. To establish any one of the various varieties of burglary, for instance, it was necessary to prove that the breaking in was done with an intent to commit some felony. The punishment for drunkenness was not over five days in jail or a fine of $10. And it was rather conclusively shown from time to time that confinement in the jail, without any labor to engross the attention of the prisoner, failed to produce any reformation and tended only to put another keen edge on his thirst. The speaker dwelt on the presumption of innocence; the necessity of competent evidence to convict, and the difficulty of securing it—a difficulty which often led the prosecuting attorney to accept a plea of guilty to a minor offense when it seemed evident that he could not establish his case. People were all too prone to jump at conclusions regarding the guilt of a person charged with crime and in the speaker's opinion the practice of printing advance notices of crime did not make for the betterment of anyone. He appreciated the good that such a newspaper was doing in leaving crime out of its columns. With the popular notion that constant official contact with criminals blunted the sensibilities he did not agree. In his opinion it tended rather to increase sympathy for the unfortunate and bring home the conviction that we are all apt to go wrong—any one of us.

Dr. Benton thought that the reason for suppressing crime news in the paper to which Judge Fifield had alluded—the desire to keep out anything which might be disagreeable to a given system of philosophy—was as vicious as crime itself. He agreed that it would be a good thing if some way could be found of curbing the publication of emotional detail which was doubtless largely responsible for the spread of crime news. It did not follow that facts should be suppressed, much abused policeman.

In a discussion of "The Power Behind the Star and Club," Fire and Police Commissioner Claude J. Hondele made a stirring plea for the much abused police officer, laying emphasis on the fact that it was a physical impossibility for him to be present in all places at all times; the fact that he was a marked man and the infractions of law and order which the ordinary citizen witnessed from time to time were carefully cloaked at his approach; the fact that those who wished to violate the ordinances were the ones who constantly sought and cultivated his friendship. Theoretically there was never any question as to what a policeman should do, but if theory were practice twenty-five per cent of his hearers would probably be before Judge Fifield for violations, for instance, of the anti-smoking ordinance. Whether or not any given law should be strictly enforced was over determined by the policy of a city administration. The chief of police always found out the temper of his superiors. If the mayor was disposed to be lenient with certain offenders, the chief would be lenient. And in the final analysis the people were responsible. If the people didn't want the law kept on too tightly the city administration would not have the ordinances enforced. The police department constantly needed the intelligent action and co-operation of every law-abiding citizen. If the patrolman is to arrest a saloon man for Sunday selling or any other law violator he must catch him in the act or have a warrant issued on complaint of someone who has such evidence. There were screens in front—tolerated by the people—and even if the officers spent all their time in alleys and at rear doors—which the public would not permit for a moment—it would be impossible to catch all offenders. "The soldier who risks his life under stress of excitement the people delight to honor but there isn't even a 'Good for you, old man' for the officer who, without salary to spare him on, takes his life in his hands and does his duty. Among the questions submitted to applicants before the board is this one: 'If you should meet a lending clerk on the street in a state of intoxication what would you do?' The invariable answer is: 'Call a carriage and take him home.' It had never been answered in any other way. This unanimity of view shows that the people want the officer to do just this thing. The man who says our police force is rotten is always in a deuce of a hurry when you ask him to put his finger on just one little thing to substantiate his indictment."

A Hypothetical Question.
Charles Reeder submitted this hypothetical question: "Now if a mayor had made the statement that he would not enforce the law or have the police close the saloons and other resorts, and that if the people insisted he'd resign, for the reason that the lawless men didn't want these things done, I wonder how many gentlemen here would confess to being business men?" The speaker went on to say that the mayor and city attorney were paid salaries to do their duty and that it was incumbent on taxpayers to get as detectives and dig up evidence. He then branched into a startling discussion of the social evil, laying that also at the doors of these officers and almost, but not quite, bringing Candidates Mackfield and Lange, who were present, to their feet.

O. A. Oestreich told about the difficulties that beset the district attorney; the coloring of facts; the very human tendency to regard the first informant as a client, believe his story and try to win the case; the widespread misconception of the officer as a man delegated to redress all private grievances; the inquiry of the common law which put a premium on non-prosecution and resulted in ill-scripted suspensions; and numerous other considerations.

R. A. Taylor landed "the honest thief," denoting him as the man who ran con games which he never expected to pay. Alfred Griswold, Joseph Schuler, Fred Palmer, Lou Kemmerer, and Dr. F. G. Wolcott were named as a committee of arrangement for Ladies' night, April 18. A delicious luncheon was served to the club under the direction of Mrs. P. A. Taylor and Mrs. William Bladen.

JANESVILLE "CUBS" ARE BOOKING DATES FOR COMING SEASON

Have Already Secured a Game With Belvidere Baseball Team for April 25.

Under the management of William Homing, the speedy center of the high school basketball team, the Janesville "Cubs," who performed so creditably on the diamond last year, have already begun to arrange games for the coming season. The first contest scheduled is with the Belvidere team at Belvidere, Ill., April 25. Frank Thompson, star infielder of last year's team, has been secured and will play with the "Cubs" again this year.

First Flying Machine.

The first flying machine of which history preserves any record was the "dove of Archytas." Archytas lived in Tarentum, Italy, and was a contemporary of Plato. The account of his flying dove comes to us from Aulus Gellius, who tells us that it was formed of wood and so contrived that by a certain mechanical art it had the power to fly, so nicely was it balanced and put in motion by hidden and inclosed air. Just what this means is, of course, to a large extent uncertain, but that the "dove" was some sort of machine that was capable of "flying" is unquestioned and beyond doubt it is the earliest record of such machine that we have.

Telegraph Poles from Russia.

There was a time when the needs of the British postoffice in the way of poles to support the overhead telegraphs of the United Kingdom, were met solely from Norway. But today Norway's tallest pine are fast becoming in sufficient numbers to meet the demands of the expanding service—demands averaging 50,000 poles per annum. Sweden was duly laid under contribution, and now Russia has become a valuable source of supply. It was in 1905 that this source was opened up by the present controller of stores, who visited Russia for the purpose. The poles came not only from the forests that feed the Baltic ports, but from those in the White sea hinterland.

ELECTRICITY IN WHITE HOUSE

Plant is Now One of Most Elaborate to Be Found in Any Residence in the United States.

According to a writer in Popular Electricity, the White House at Washington now enjoys the distinction of supporting the most elaborate electric light plant in the United States. He says:

A considerable portion of the electric lights at the White House are in use during every hour of dusk or darkness, week-days and Sundays, from one end of the year to the other, so that it can be appreciated that merely the maintenance of this lighting system, the renewing of lamps, etc., is a considerable chore.

Electricity is (also) employed to operate an automatic elevator and dumb-waiters; supplies the energy for a vacuum cleaner for carpets, curtains, etc.; drives upward of two hundred house fans and a number of exhaust fans for ventilating purposes; provides a private telephone system with stations in all parts of the mansion and grounds; and finally, does much of the cooking in the kitchen and the ironing in the laundry.

"The power plant which supplies the electricity for the White House is not located in the mansion, but in the sub-basement of the state, war and navy department building, directly across the street. The machinery was thus placed because it was not desirable to have the dirt and noise incident to a power plant at the White House and also from considerations of the danger from fire. The power plant has a 200-horsepower engine and two Curtis turbines of 75 and 150 kilowatts capacity, respectively. The White House receives a 220-volt direct current for power and a 110-volt direct current for lighting. There is a lighting circuit at the White House stables, located nearly a square from the mansion, and facilities have lately been installed for the charging of Mrs. Taft's new electric automobile.

As the White House is absolutely dependent upon electricity as an indispensable (the mansion not being supplied with gas), it is of supreme importance that dependable current be available every minute of the 24 hours. The equipment in the dynamo-room presents three sources of electrical energy, any one of which is all-sufficient for White House needs and in the unheard of event that all three installations should be simultaneously out of commission or unable to carry the load from any cause, the White House may be immediately thrown on to an emergency street service supplied by the leading commercial company at the national capital.

Wireless New York to Chicago.

A press message was recently sent by the New York Times to the Chicago Tribune by means of wireless telegraphy from the tower of the Waldorf-Astoria hotel to the Auditorium Annex in Chicago. The difficulties involved in sending the message, owing to the interfering and conflicting waves from other stations, showed that wireless telegraphy, at least in its present state, is not a serious competitor of wire telegraphy for transmission over land. It was only after repeated attempts to get the Chicago station that communication was finally established.

Delinquent Children in France.

The government of France sends delinquent children to a farmer's family, pays a stated sum a week for board and lodging and pays for clothes and the doctor. The child must be sent to a public school. The cost of all this is far less than keeping up institutions, and, furthermore, these French children of the vices of crime and misfortune usually stay on the soil and become healthy, expert farmers and good, saving citizens. How to manage the delinquent child is getting to be one of the most serious questions of white civilization.

Best Training.

Society has this good at least; that it teaches our conceit, by teaching us our insignificance, and making us acquainted with our betters. If you are a young person who reads this, depend upon it, sir or madam, there is nothing more wholesome for you than to acknowledge and associate with your superiors. If I could, I would not have my son Thomas first Greek and Latin, prize boy, first oar, and cock of the school, better for his soul's and body's welfare that he should have a good place, not the first—a fair set of competitors round about him, and a good thrashing now and then, with a hearty shake afterwards of the hand which administered the beating.—W. M. Thackeray.

Wet Time at a Wedding.

In concluding an account of "a quiet wedding," a western Kansas paper says: "J. J. Anderson, father of the bride, who never before had shed a tear, found several of them rolling down his sunburned cheeks as he came forward to kiss the bride, remarking that she was his 'last baby.' Immediately several of the ladies began to shed tears, everybody was somewhat excited, and in the slight confusion the writer himself found himself embracing a lady who stood so conveniently near and who proved not to be his wife. He immediately apologized to the lady and was forgiven. He apologized again later to his wife, with no very definite results up to this date."—Kansas City Star.

STRIKE SITUATION CLOSELY WATCHED

Local Engineers Are Viciously Interested in Present Proceedings at Chicago.

Engineers in this city, more particularly those who are members of the firemen's union, and all interested are watching with intense interest the developments of the threatened strike on the forty-nine western roads which is being fought out at the present time in Chicago between the officials of the union and the board of railway managers.

While those engineers who do not belong to the firemen's union are not interested to the extent that their fellow workmen are, they have much at stake for should the firemen go out, they would be put to much trouble with their freight engines or even be unable to work at all for it is practically certain that the firemen would tie up the different roads. Those engineers belonging to the firemen's organization would be forced to walk out should a strike be called.

From what can be learned, neither the firemen on the North-Western nor the St. Paul are anxious to strike but are hoping that the difficulty will be settled without that necessity by a compromise or a surrender on the part of the roads. One of the reasons for this anxiety to settle without trouble is due to the fact that other organizations have not shown ready support of the cause, the engineers, it is alleged, being distinctly hostile. This attitude can hardly be censured for the engineers have more at stake and practically nothing to gain.

That the firemen have a just cause and deserve any raise in wages that may be secured, seems to be the general opinion. With the installation of the big freight engines now being used on nearly every road and the necessity for hauling about twenty tons of coal a trip, the firemen have a hard row to hoe. This, together with the increased cost of living, gives them substantial grounds upon which to base their demands for more money.

Just how many railroad men in this city would be directly affected should the union call a strike, is hard to determine. While a number of firemen are members of the union, others belong to the trainmen, while a number of the engineers, especially those who have just passed the examinations, belong to the firemen's union as well as the trainmen. It is safe to say, however, that at least thirty engineers and firemen would be forced to respond should a strike order be issued. Officials of the union are in constant communication with the railroad officials in Chicago and are posted on the exact status of the negotiations. They have, however, constantly refused to talk on the subject except in a general way.

CONGESTION OF CARS AT NEW YARDS IS RELIEVED

For First Time in Many Months, Road Has More Engines Than Can Be Used.

For the first time in many months, the road yesterday had more engines than could be used. In the new yards, there was not a car for the south and, according to the yardmaster's statement, only about five hundred for the north. These figures, when contrasted with the number of cars that have been in the yards during the past winter, would seem to warrant the belief that business is falling off or that the road has finally gotten things in working order and is handling the traffic with more expedition than formerly. Three Wisconsin division engines were held in the house this morning because of the fact that there were no cars to be sent south.

MACHINIST JOSEPH SMITH PAINFULLY HURT YESTERDAY

Had Two Toes Crushed While Working in the Roundhouse at the New Yards.

While engaged with several others in raising the tank on engine 854 yesterday afternoon at 4:30, machinist Joseph Smith was painfully injured when a heavy rail, used as a support, slipped from the hands of one of his fellow workers and fell, striking Smith on the right foot and crushing two of his toes. His great toe was crushed almost to a pulp while his first toe was also badly crushed. He was immediately taken home and his injuries dressed. It is not thought that an amputation will be necessary but the accident will incapacitate him for several weeks.

EIGHTY-FOOT TURN-TABLE TO BE INSTALLED AT NEW YARDS

Present Table Is Too Small To Permit Of Handling Big Engines

After experimenting great trouble in handling the new class "12" and "22" engines on the present turn table at the new yards, the road has decided to install a new and longer table.

The new table will be eighty feet long and will be ready for service this summer. The steel structural work has already arrived and is side-tracked at the new yards. Just when the work will be begun is not known.

Conductor John Erdmann has been placed in charge of the turn car.

FOR YOUR HEALTH'S SAKE

DIRTY AIR AND COAL BILLS.

A person does not need to stay in the water long in order to get wet; neither is it necessary for one to remain in a polluted atmosphere long before feeling its bad effects. A number of persons soon possess the air in a room and make it unfit to breathe.

Air that is laden with dust is always dangerous. It is known that among those who work in dusty occupations there is a high death rate from bronchitis, pneumonia and tuberculosis. It is also known that mineral dusts are more injurious to the lungs and air passages than are the vegetable dusts. This is why the death rate from diseases of the respiratory organs among stone and metal workers is so much greater than it is among workers in flour mills and grain elevators.

The remedy is perfect ventilation. And while it is true that frequent changes of air will necessarily affect the coal bills, this should not be measured against diseased lungs, befogged brains, and impaired efficiency. In other words, it means both health and economy to have plenty of fresh air.

Evidently Father Was Doing Well.

Long after the death of the elder George Grossmith the British income tax commissioners sent to the son, the well-known actor, a notice assessing the income of the deceased at $10,000. Mr. Grossmith returned the document to the proper quarter, with the following note written across it: "I am glad to learn my father is doing so well in the next world; $10,000 is a great deal more than he ever made in this. Kindly forward this notice to his new address, and remember me affectionately to him."

Why We Shake Hands.

In the barbarous days of old, when every man had to watch carefully over his own safety, when two persons met they offered each to the other the right hand, the hand that wields the club, sword, knife or other weapon of war. Each did this to show that the hand was empty, and that, therefore, no trouble needed to be feared. The handshake was the treaty of peace—in a word, the way they had of showing each other that they meant to be friendly.

The New Colors and Styles

Marine blue promises to be first in the color line, though the following are excellent shades of old rose, catwallow and new green, natural tan, burnt almond, blonde, grays in all shades and blacks.

When simplicity and smartness is the keynote, new features always mean much; such as the touches of silk in the revers, introduction of Persian braids of burnished gold, or a bit of artistic embroidery artistically applied, the smart belt—all these tend to give exclusiveness, which this season has been our unceasing aim.

The coats are shorter—severe—mannish. Norfolkis are smart and quite in evidence in our showing. Skirts are varied, plaited styles of all kinds predominating.

Spring Suits $15 to $25

Within the above price range we aim to offer the best values obtainable and the handsomest styles shown in Janesville. Buying (and selling) FOR CASH as we do, the manufacturers are apt to offer better inducements to us than to the ordinary credit store. We invite you to see our Easter displays, not only in the Suits and Coats, but throughout the entire store. Remember that this is a cash store and that your money spent here will give you advantage, either of lower prices or bigger, better values at the regular prices.

Freshness, newness, authoritative showings characterize our Easter showings throughout.

The Man-Tailored Separate Coat

Is more than ever a necessity because of the popularity of the one-piece dress. Here again have we provided the practical features of the new mode—with a charm of color and a newness of fabric that at once delights and makes selection a pleasure.

The Fashionable Dress Capes

Capes are going to be worn quite generally, both for dress wear and for evening parties. Our values are beyond comparison. We show the popular colors in the full length styles, with trimmings and strappings of gold and Persian, also brass and gilt buttons.

WHAT WAS GAINED?

What really was gained by the revolt against Cannon? It developed the weakness of the republican party in congress, evidenced a fatal error in judgment on the part of the party which in not handling the affair better and leaves the nation disgusted with the whole affair. The only advantage gained was that Cannon was taken off the house committee on rules. But to overbalance that the reports this morning show that six of his staunchest supporters are to find places on it and none of the insurgents are to be recognized.

"In the cause of representative government" was the way in which Lenroot characterized the revolt. Where has that phrase been used before? It has been a slogan, a war cry of the Wisconsin reformers for years. "In the cause of representative government." A revolt against the doctrines of the republican party under whose banners they falsely enlisted so as to gain a seat in congress can not be termed "in the cause of representative government." Far from it. It is open opposition of the cause of democracy and the men who voted against Cannon and the republicans should be hounded enough to come out and seek nominations on the democratic ticket and not disgrace the republican by placing their names in its party column.

Wisconsin is the center of the insurgency. Wisconsin is the state above all others that has furnished the means for the disgraceful scenes of the past week in Washington. Cooper's vote to unseat Cannon may be laid directly to the spleen he feels at being removed from the chairmanship of the insular committee. Lenroot followed the teachings of his "master" as did Nelson and Cary. These four went beyond the limit set by their other Wisconsin compatriots and voted to unseat the speaker—voted with their democratic brethren—voted as ordered to by the man who will seek re-nomination and re-election to the United States senate this coming fall and winter.

It is all right to rail at the conditions, to bow your head in disgrace at the vote of your respective congressmen, but there is only one way to remedy the situation and that is by concerted action throughout the state on the part of republicans. True, honest men must be nominated for the office; good, hard work of the concerted kind is needed to do this and there should be no hesitation in putting the shoulder to the wheel. Not for the Connor element, not for the Cook element, not for the Stephenson element, nor for the Davidson element, but for good, honest men who should be crowned, honored and elected. Cannonism stands for republicanism and while of course there must be criticism and objections to many of the doctrines of any political party in the main the country has endorsed them. Ship subsidy, postal savings banks and other pet legislation theories may not be understood by the country as a whole where they do not come into personal consideration of these subjects but we are a great nation and must look after all interests without slighting any section of the country, north, southeast or west.

To have unseated Cannon just at this time would have been most disastrous to the republican party. To have overturned the existing conditions of affairs at one full swoop would have verged on a state of anarchy and the men who stood firmly by the doctrines of republicanism should be congratulated and those who deserted the standard, or the detraction of aspiring leaders, or for personal spite, should be treated with the contempt and biases they received from the republicans of the house.

THE PRIMARY RESULTS.

The results of today's primaries indicate the make-up of the republican and democratic tickets for the coming spring election which is two weeks off. To the citizens who did not vote, who did not show enough interest in the welfare of their city, nothing can be said in excuse. The law gives all men over the age of twenty-one, who have resided in the state a year and in the ward and precinct two weeks previous to the primary a right to vote. Interest in municipal affairs is of far more consequence than interest in state and national affairs. Good government, good roads, good streets and an economical expenditure of the city's money is essential to the pocket-book of every taxpayer. Today was the real test of who is to represent the different wards in the next council, for with but the contest in the first and second wards the selection of candidates made today will be final. If you did not vote the polls will be open until seven o'clock and you should avail yourself of the opportunity to demonstrate an interest in civic affairs.

TO TALK OF JANESVILLE.

One of the first results of the newly organized Industrial and Commercial club of Janesville is to bring to the city on Friday evening next Lucius E. Wilson, secretary of the Greater Des Moines committee which is doing for that city what the club wishes to do for Janesville. Mr. Wilson is a man of exceptional ability and his address on Friday evening next, which will be for members of the club, their friends and others interested in the city's development, will be on the needs of Janesville. It is a rare opportunity to hear a man discuss a subject he is thoroughly conversant with and which he has proven a success in and a large audience should greet him.

While Europe and Africa honors former President Roosevelt the South American republics are vying with each other in honoring William Jennings Bryan, the three time aspirant for a home in the white house. Perhaps no other man ever received similar honors and really makes it worth while to be an ex-candidate.

A new way to get your name in print is to express doubt that Peary ever reached the north pole. It is a method of cheap advertising and the majority of people are willing to concede that the explorer did just as he said he would do when he started out the last time—find that much sought for pole.

Chalmers is preparing to scour the country for butter milk when it gets ready to welcome Charles Fairbanks on his return from his world's tour. Since leaving Rome, Fairbanks has been author quiet and his press agent has lost his job they say.

President Taft has noted the citizens generally to be kind and considerate to the census enumerators and "double the people will do as they are asked to do. Certainly it will be a great help if they do as they are told to."

Farmers need not be afraid that the questions asked by the census men are for the purpose of increasing their taxes. They are needed that the different departments of the government can make proper estimates of the food supply.

This talk about eating the cheaper cuts of meats continues, still none of the true rich suggest that they themselves try them even though they have chefs to prepare all these fine dishes they describe as so good and nourishing.

Spring need not be afraid of over-doling things at all. Keep right on and give us nice, warm, sunny days to make up for the snow and ice of the past months.

The robins are discovering who are making gardens this early and the way they hop about and gather the worms shows that they appreciate spring gardening as well as the lot owner will this summer.

Children in the city schools should have the fire drills frequently for one never knows when the need for them is liable to occur. An ounce of prevention is worth more than a bushel of curelessness.

It is a suggestion worth following out and that is that a good spring yard cleaning just at this time would be very beneficial to the health and looks of the city generally.

It is a pity that some of the immigrants can not be separated from the old world fads before they leave the island for the interior states.

Wassau is seriously considering the question, "When is a marriage not a marriage?" Easy! When it is like a labor contract between a Philadelphia union and a corporation.

Re-election seems to be the hobby of many public men according to the Madison Democrat. In some cases it is worse. With the senior senator from Wisconsin it is an exception.

Philander Jr. has cause to envy Teddy Jr. The secretary's son must earn his fatted calf while his more fortunate friends may even expect a fatted pig.

With the insurgents and Joe Cannon, Aldrich et al mixing it freely in Washington, Bryan Tumbo has again been relegated to the inside pages.

Colonel Roosevelt is not cornering all the excitement by a good deal. There is still lots of it in Washington.

When a man raises his own home he can laugh at the cold storage trust and be happy as a clam in salt water.

Remember that it is April's not March's showers that bring May flowers, and keep your overcoat handy.

With hogs above ten dollars a yard of pork, three pigs foot, is certainly in the class of luxury these warm spring days.

"The Wise Man, with some boys in tow, beheld a pin upon the ground. 'My lads,' he said, his face aglow, 'come here and see what I have found! I have found! 'Tis but a pin, a humble pin, on which the passing throng would tread, to see me lift it from its bed. And yet, my lads, the trifle counts: the drops of water make the sea; the grains of sand compose the mound, and moments make eternity. Each hour to man its chances brings, but he will gain no goodly store, if he despises little things, nor sees the pin upon his floor. I stoop and grasp this little pin; I keep it, mayhap, seven years; it yet may let the sunshine in, and brighten up a day of care.' The Wise Man bent to reach the pin, and lost his balance, with a yell; he hit

The Wise Man bent to reach the pin, and lost his balance, with a yell; he hit the pavement with his chin; his hat into the gutter fell; he rolled into a crate of eggs, and filled the air with dismal moans, and then a dray run over his legs, and broke about a dozen of bones. They took him home upon a door, and there he moans—so tough he feels! "Those dad-blamed children never more will listen to my helpful spells!"

Painless Dentistry

My Painless work is reaching out tremendously among the neighboring cities.

Just for illustration, on last Saturday I had patients from Alton, Evansville, Portville and two from Clinton, one from Minnesota, besides several from 4 to 8 miles on either side of town.

Today I had one from Montana who waited all on a visit here before having her Dental work done.

I also extracted two teeth for a third patient just now who—like all the rest—said, "Dr. Richards, you never hurt a bit."

C. A. HUNT, Chairman Town Com.

LITTLE INTEREST SHOWN BY VOTERS IN THE PRIMARIES

Today's Election Is Going Along Very Slowly—Contests in But Three Wards.

With but three aldermanic contests, in the first, where Drummond and Evans both seek the republican nomination, in the third where Campbell and Hall are fighting it out and in the fifth where Joseph F. Donahue and James J. Reed are after the democratic nomination, there is but little real interest shown in today's primaries.

The vote throughout the city is exceptionally light. In the first ward at 10 a. m. it was but 22. In the second a few minutes later, 150. In the third ward at one forty-five, it was 200 and in the fourth at one-twenty, it was only 100. In the fifth it was fairly good, totalling 155 at one p. m.

The contest for the republican nomination for city attorney is the only city contest, this lying between Maxwell and Lange. There is perhaps an interesting question as to whether or not enough democratic votes will be cast to place Burpee, the democratic nominee on the ticket, to oppose the winner of this contest.

The returns will be received at the Gazette office as fast as they are counted in the respective wards and will be posted in the business office as early as possible.

The fire is supposed to have started from a traction engine which was taken out of the yard this morning shortly before the fire was discovered. EASTER WEARING APPAREL

The wearing apparel section has been entirely remodeled, while all the finishing touches have not been put on we are in excellent shape to take care of the trade.

The arrangement of the department affords us more room than we had formerly to display garments. The fixtures are in Golden Oak rubbed finish with mirrors paneled in at intervals. There are two fitting rooms, and duplicate stock rooms above the main retail section. They are up to the minute and make a substantial improvement for the department.

Although we were badly handicapped for several days before, and while the fixtures were being installed, nevertheless customers seemed very patient and seemed willing to put up with the inconveniences in order to get garments of The Big Store Quality.

There is a difference you know. We pride ourselves upon giving the most careful attention to the buying of wearing apparel. They must come up to The Big Store's standards. Quality and workmanship are the important things. We would rather miss sales than to sell garments too low priced to insure material that would give satisfaction.

We take this opportunity to thank the many customers for putting up with the inconveniences of the past few weeks, which however was unavoidable.

To have business increase steadily under prevalent conditions during the past thirty days speaks volumes for the drawing power of The Big Store. SOME OF THE LEADING THINGS FOR SPRING AND SUMMER WEAR ARE:

FASHIONABLE TAILORED LONG COATS

The call for coats has been exceptional and it often required even the immense showings made here to satisfy the demand. For Easter week our display is superb. Handsome models in cadet blue and marine blue, as well as navy. Many new greys and greens, wisteria shades and others too many to enumerate. The popular materials are French serges, Scotch mixtures, the wide wale and diagonal weaves, in the straight coat, semi-fitted and the Russian blouse effects. Trimmings are of silk braid and buttons though not elaborate, as the styles tend towards simplicity and grace of lines. Our showing includes every good feature and is the biggest in Southern Wisconsin.

SHORT COATS FOR SPRING

The ¾ coat is going to be a very stylish garment for spring and summer wear. They come in serges, Scotch mixtures and covert, in all the new colors, and black broadcloth and serges. Every size from 32 to 48 is included in our authoritative showing, and are priced moderately at $6.00 to $20.00.

SUITS TYPICAL OF THIS SEASON'S STYLE CHANGES

In Paris every woman aims to have a touch of personality to the garment she wears, and in the same way The Big Store has aimed at exclusiveness. We control the lines here in Janesville of some of the largest makers of New York, Cleveland, Philadelphia and Chicago. Our many years of experience has taught us who make honest garments and who show the most authoritative styles season after season. In addition we receive a fashion service direct from a New York agency whose sole business it is to advise us, and other merchants throughout the country, in regard to what is being shown in the metropolitan centers and what is meeting with favor. When our selection of suits is made, we know positively that every number is a popular number, and that the colors and shades are the latest.

The Short Coat Suits are the vogue this season, skirts are plaited and panel effects. The colors are the many blues and new greys, shades of old rose, novelty greens, shepherd checks and hair-line patterns, both dark and light.

The Big Store enjoys the distinction of showing by far the largest assortment of any establishment in Southern Wisconsin and while our efforts are not directed towards the cheapest class of garments, yet for the better qualities our prices are notably moderate. Complete Easter displays will greet you here.

Children's Spring Coats and Capes

The little ones will find here a tempting array of sprightly, beautifully colored garments for selection. These children's coats embody many of the style features shown in garments for their older sisters and mothers.

The Capes are fast becoming popular for children. They are very dressy, and the many bright colorings affords a selection that will please all. Sizes from 2 years to 12 years, prices $3, $4, $5.

The Latest and Most Fashionable Skirts

Separate Skirts are being called for quite briskly this season and we have anticipated the demand in a generous manner. Our showing for Easter week includes complete lines of black, brown, tans, blues, etc., in every size and in every good style for spring wear. The materials are fine voiles, soft silks, serges and suitings of various weaves. We carry the famous Altman Voile Skirts, which we have handled for years with the best of satisfaction.

Dainty Examples in Spring Undermuslins

With the advent of the new spring suit, the material desire arises for the daintiest of Undermuslins to make a complete wardrobe. The new undermuslins are ready—as carefully made and finished as if they were to be held up for inspection.

Garments that will yield absolute satisfaction in the fit, which is so necessary for the season's style requirement in dress.

The designs are exclusive and all are extremely beautiful. The Laces and Embroideries reveal the best thoughts of skillful workmen.

The latest connoisseurs of the Standard Manufacturing Co. line of strictly sanitary undermuslins and of the famous La Grelle brand which is far superior to French lingerie at many times the cost. All garments are of the finest of materials and the workmanship and finish is superb.

We advise an early selection while assortments and sizes are complete.

New Shirt Waists

Due to arrive this week. Many new and beautiful creations in fine lingerie waists will be seen in this showing. The very waist perhaps that you have been waiting for. Made by the famous Standard Mills. Better wait.

Corsets of Fashion to be had at THE BIG STORE. The new figure, elongated waist, curved and defined, hips curving also.

Fashionable figures are not made by chance, but by careful corseting.

We now have an expert corset lady in charge of this department. All corsets will be perfectly fitted. This should mean much to the ladies of Janesville, for no corset, however good, can give perfect satisfaction unless the right one is selected and fitted to your individual figure.

With such high class corsets as Royal Worcester, Bon Ton, W. B. Warner, Redfern and La Grelle, it would seem almost impossible not to find the exact shape and style of corset for your figure.

THE BEEF POOL IS INDICTED

TRUE BILLS FOR NATIONAL COMPANY AND TEN OTHERS RETURNED.

CIVIL ACTION THEN FOLLOWS

Leading Men in Industry in Chicago Are Defendants in Document Designed to End Combine—What Bill Sets Forth.

Chicago, Mar. 22.—Indictments against the National Packing Company and ten subsidiary corporations, charged with operating in restraint of trade, were returned by the federal grand jury. The blow is calculated by government officials to have a far-reaching effect and shortly after the grand jury was discharged it was authoritatively stated that criminal prosecution of individuals might follow.

National Packing Company of New Jersey.

G. H. Hammond Company of Michigan.

Fowler Packing Company of Kansas.

United Dressed Beef Company of Missouri.

Hammond Packing Company of Illinois.

Omaha Packing Company of Illinois.

Anglo-American Provision Company of Illinois.

Western Packing Company of Colorado.

St. Louis Dressed Beef and Provision Company of Missouri.

Colorado Packing and Provision Company of Colorado.

New York Butchers' Dressed Meat Company of New York.

Coincident with the return of the indictments, a petition to dissolve the National Packing Company and its subsidiaries was filed by District Attorney Blinn in the United States circuit court.

Those in Suit in Equity.

While none of the packers was named in the indictment, they are mentioned in the suit in equity. Those who are made defendants to the suit in equity besides those corporations which were indicted are: Armour & Co., Swift & Co., Morris & Co., Edward Tilden, Louis F. Swift, Edward F. Swift, Charles H. Swift, L. A. Carlton, Frank A. Fowler, J. Ogden Atmure, Arthur Meeker, Thomas J. Connors, Edward Morris, Thomas E. Wilson, L. H. Heyman, Continental Packing Company.

What Bill Charges.

The indictment sets forth that all of the defendants except the National Packing Company, which is charged, is merely a holding company, are engaged in the beef-packing industry; that they buy live cattle at various points in the United States and slaughter them at the plants of the various concerns located in Chicago, Kansas City, St. Joseph, East St. Louis, Omaha, Denver and New York city; that the beef resulting from the slaughter of the cattle is shipped to various markets throughout the United States.

The bill charges that the necessary effect of the union of these interests in the management of the National Packing Company is to destroy competition, not only among the constituent companies of the National Packing Company, but also between those companies and the Armour, Swift and Morris companies.

IMMIGRANT SHIP GOES DOWN.

Sinks in New York Harbor—Passengers and Crew Are Safe.

New York, Mar. 22.—An accident that threatened for a time to develop into a second Bloem disaster, occurred in New York harbor almost within sight of Battery park, when the Ellis Island immigrant steamer William Fletcher sank in the bay off Governor's island, while on the way from Brooklyn to Ellis island with a load of immigrants, who had arrived on the Italian liner Lucania. She was in tow the immigrant barge Adria and on the two boats were 825 men, women and children. All the immigrants and crew of the steamer were transferred to safety to the Adria after hard work. The foreigners were greatly excited and only the courage and coolness of the officers and crew of the Fletcher prevented a serious panic.

WEALTHY WOMAN IS ARRESTED.

Is Held on Bond on Charge of Attempted Smuggling.

New York, Mar. 22.—Mrs. Cornelia L. Woolman, a handsome and wealthy woman of Helena, Mont., who claims to be a friend of United States Senator Carter, was held in $500 bail by United States Commissioner Ross on a charge of attempted smuggling.

Her arrest was largely due to her conduct on the dock, where she denounced the customs service and its employees in unmeasured terms.

Session Is Stormy.

Budapest, Mar. 22.—Stormy as have been sessions of the Hungarian chamber of deputies, the Magyaras outdid themselves. Inkwell, books and other handy missiles were hurled at the heads of the initiators until the latter took refuge in flight.

Bread Famine Next.

New York, Mar. 22.—Ten thousand journeymen bakers of New York will strike on May 1, their leaders say. There was a similar strike a year ago. This time the Jewish bakers will be assisted by the bakers of other races.

Award of Self-Denial.

The more we deny ourselves the more the gods supply our wants.—Horus.

ELKINS DECLARES RATE BILL PLEAS ALL

Defends Measure Against Attacks Made by Cummins in His Four-Day Speech.

Washington, Mar. 22.—Senator Stephen B. Elkins made a plea for the adoption of the railroad bill and at the same time replied to the attacks by Senator Cummins in his four-day speech against the measure last week.

Referring to the criticism that the jurisdiction of the proposed new court had been enlarged, Senator Elkins pointed out that the exact language upon which the supreme court had made its decision defining the power of the court had been re-enacted into the law.

Of the Sherman anti-trust law, Senator Elkins said the bill modified that act as construed by the court which prohibits any agreement among railroads.

Senator Elkins laid stress on the fact that the approval of the commission with regard to traffic agreements had been provided for in the bill, in accordance with what the committee believed to be the interpretation of the platform and the pledges of the president.

Senator Cummins asked Senator Elkins if he did not remember that President Roosevelt three times had urged absolute control of railroad rates by the commission.

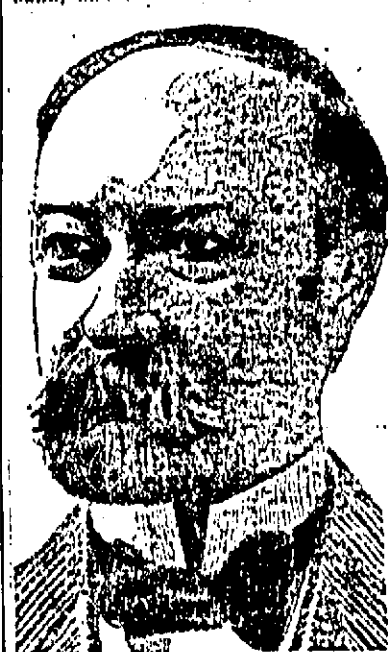

"Oh," retorted Senator Elkins amid laughter, "no man can remember all that Mr. Roosevelt has ever said, but what I say is that this bill does respond to the public interests. If it does not let us get together and make it right."

FAIRBANKS IS GUEST OF HONOR.

Attends First Public Dinner Since Return from World Trip.

New York, Mar. 22.—Protecting the improbability of war with Japan and the mischievousness of those who even hinted at it, ex-Vice-President Charles W. Fairbanks was the guest of honor at the Union League club, his first public dinner since his return from a trip around the world.

The only toast was that to Mr. Fairbanks, and after it had been heartily drank he responded with his pro-Japanese sentiments.

Mr. Fairbanks referred to Col. Roosevelt, cheers marking the mention of his name.

"No matter what difference of opinion was felt about the advisability of sending the fleet around the world, I am satisfied after my trip that it was the best thing that has ever been done for the honor and dignity of the American people. It was the greatest achievement of the illustrious administration of President Roosevelt."

LEATHER WORKERS ON STRIKE.

Men Are Out at All Principal Cities—Want Better Pay.

Kansas City, Mo., Mar. 22.—Leather workers all over the United States were ordered to strike from the national headquarters of the United Brotherhood of Leather Workers in this city.

The order was generally obeyed, hundreds of men in numerous cities failing to report for work.

The strike has been impending for some weeks, demands for better wages and shorter hours in most instances having been made some time in advance of the strike order.

Wreckage from Steamship Is Washed on Shore at Belle Isle.

Lorient, France, Mar. 22.—Two human bodies, a life buoy marked "Prins Willem II.," several oars and much miscellaneous wreckage were washed up on the shore at Belle Isle. Supreme Court Takes Recess.

Washington, Mar. 22.—The supreme court of the United States took a recess until Monday, April 4.

CHARGED WITH KILLING SISTER.

Confesses to Giving Relative Poison—Is Arrested at Akron.

Toledo, O., Mar. 22.—Catherine Manz, the 16-year-old sister of Elizabeth Manz, who was found dead, presumably of strychnine poisoning, at her home in Massillon, was placed under arrest as she was attempting to obtain employment at the B. F. Goodrich Rubber Company's factory at Akron.

In the presence of three Akron officers, Miss Manz confessed to poisoning her sister.

INDICT 40 COUNCILMEN ON GRAFTING CHARGE

Pittsburg Grand Jury Hands Down Indictment Alleging Men Accepted $100 Each.

Pittsburg, Pa., Mar. 22.—Forty present and former members of the select and common councils were indicted and ten more are held under suspended sentences in bonds of $500 upon their own confessions of having shared in a pool of $102,000.

As fast as the conscience-stricken councilmen finished their tales of disgrace before the grand jury they ran to Judge R. S. Frazer, sitting as committing magistrate, to take advantage of the immunity bath offered last week by the district attorney.

Those startling developments were precipitated by the sensational confession of former Councilman John Klein. Klein said he had receipts bearing the signatures of the men who received the money, and this statement produced consternation.

Up to the adjournment of the court for the day, ten had confessed their guilt. In most instances the amount of money they confessed to accepting as a bribe was not over $100.

As fast as present councilmen appeared, after they had relieved their consciences, they were ordered immediately to resign from the city government, and in every instance the letter of resignation was written in the district attorney's office and mailed to Mayor Magee before the guilty ones left the building.

The greatest surprise of the day came when Dr. W. H. Weber, member of select council, appeared before Judge Frazer and made a confession almost as startling as that of Klein. Dr. Weber told of receiving $10,000 in a shoe box. This, he said, he gave Klein for members of the common council, while he kept $4,000 to "fix" members of the upper branch.

RACING FAKERS GO TO PRISON.

Mabray and Associates Are Sentenced for Swindling.

Council Bluffs, Ia., Mar. 22.—John C. Mabray and nine others convicted of fraudulent use of the mails in fake racing swindles were sentenced to two years in the penitentiary and fined $10,000 each.

Bill Lost, Italy's Cabinet Quits.

Rome, Italy, Mar. 22.—The Italian cabinet has resigned. The retirement of the ministry was due to the realization that the government's mercantile marine subsidies measure was doomed to defeat.

Duma Elects President.

St. Petersburg, Mar. 22.—Alexander J. Guchoff was elected president of the Duma to succeed Khomyakov, who recently resigned.

INDICT ALLEGED NIGHT RIDERS.

Six Prominent Men Are Charged with Hopkinton Raid.

Hopkinton, Ky., Mar. 22.—In returning indictments charging Dr. D. A. Ames, J. B. Malone, Guy Dunning, Newton Nichols, John Robinson and Irving Glass, all prominent, with implication in the night riders raid on this city on December 7, 1907, the present grand jury confirmed rumors that it would attempt to bring the leaders to justice.

Three separate charges are lodged against the defendants. The raiders destroyed the warehouse of John C. Latham, New York banker, and others, and wounded two men.

Fifteen People Hurt.

Hamarack, N. D., Mar. 22.—A local passenger on the "Slog" went into a ditch near here last night and 15 people were injured, but none seriously.

Goes to Berlin.

Peking, Mar. 22.—The appointment of Sir Chen-Tung Liao Cheng as minister at Berlin has been gazetted.

Suffragists Reap Victory.

Frankfort, Ky., Mar. 22.—Gov. Wilson approved of the bill providing that the mother shall have equal right under the law with the father in selecting the guardian for their children. This bill was pushed by the Woman's Equal Rights society, and its passage and approval is a great victory for the suffragettes.

NEAR CHAMPION IN BOWLING CONGRESS Wm. Richter, Chicago.

ALL AROUND CHAMPION BOWLER OF AMERICA

Tom Haley, Detroit.

Detroit, (Mich.)—Thomas Haley of Detroit, was the sensation of the closing of the tenth annual tournament of the American Bowling Congress tournament when he rolled the remarkable score of 705 in the individual event, winning that event and setting a new tournament record. He also won the prize for the best total for the games with 136, which is another new bowling congress record.

Haley's great series came in the afternoon after practically everyone had become reconciled to the almost certain victory of William Richter of Chicago, with 692. He opened with 235, and the crowd went wild when he rolled up 268 for his second—a total of 501 for two games. He needed 189 to win, and made insurance doubly sure with 201, giving him a lead of 13 pins over Richter.

The former American congress record in the singles was 629, which was made by Archie Wenger of Chicago at Cincinnati in 1908. The former high mark for nine games was 1,224, made by R. Crable of East Liverpool, Ohio, in 1908.

Haley rolled consistently in the three events. In the five man event he made 617, with the Boroughs of Detroit, and rolling in the doubles with Alex Nino, he gathered 629. The pair counted 1,133 and went into seventh place.

William Richter of Chicago finished second with 692, and George Quinley was third with 638.

SOUTH MAGNOLIA.

South Magnolia, March 21.—Mrs. John Boyd and girls of Jamesville spent Friday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Harper.

The Ticklemouse

—and his Sleepyland Adventures
By Roy Rutherford Bailey with Davy and Dorfy

On Mrs. Noah's Houseboat

SOMETHING heavy was being dragged across the bedroom floor. Had the twins been less sleepy it would have waked them.

The Ticklemouse, wearing a natty blue sailor suit and an admiral's cocked hat, stopped and puffed. The load was so heavy he needed help. He awoke the twins by tickling their noses with the tip of his tail, on which a diamond ring sparkled.

"Wake up!" he whispered, pointing to the thing on the floor. Dorfy jumped out of bed, staring. "Why, it's Davy's old Noah's Ark—how big it's grown!"

"A vast, there, lend a hand!" squeaked the Mouse. "He helped him drag the Ark—growing bigger every minute—to the window. 'Visitors ashore!' cried the Mouse with a wink.

"They jumped aboard. The big Ark swooped through the night, landing with a great splash in an unknown sea. Inside they heard a great racket. The elephants were trumpeting, the tigers whining, lions roaring, hyenas laughing—all Davy's wooden animals had come to life and were raging in the cabin.

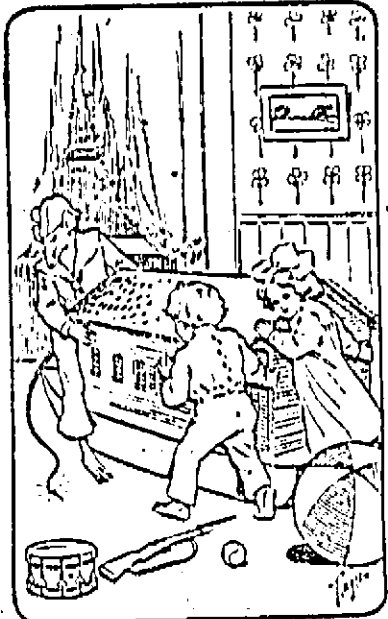

No wonder the animals were scared—the wind was blowing forty knots an hour, the big waves dashing over the port rail. Captain Ticklemouse hustled the twins to starboard and whistled. A frightened face popped out of the bus's window—Mrs. Noah!

"Aye, aye, Cap'n!"

"Where's the mate?" squeaked the Mouse. "Gone overboard!"

"Burned alive with the waste paper before we left port, Cap'n?" Mrs. Noah looked accusingly at Davy.

"Oh—oh, I didn't mean to," cried the "Too late now," yelled the Ticklemouse—"breakers ahead! Port your helm, bos'n!" and Mrs. Noah threw the wheel hard astern. "Quick, Davy—dive into the cabin and make fast the cat tribe!" The Mouse's hair was stiff with fright, but it was the cats' and tigers he feared, not the wild storm. Dorfy screamed and clung to Davy's nightie. "Don't go, Davy! Oh, don't—they'll eat you up!"

"Stow the squalling!" snapped the Mouse—"they're his animals, aren't they, same as daytimes?" A mountain-high wave drowned his words with a gurgle.

The frightened bos'n flashed her lantern on a bright red stream pouring from the cabin. "It's blood!" she shrieked—"the animals are killing each other! Murder—they're killing my boys! Oh—help! help! This is a nice houseboat, this is! Shem! Ham! Where are you, Japh—"

Her son Ham bounced on deck, dragging a hippopotamus. "That isn't blood, Ma!" he yelled to Mrs. Noah. "It's paint—the animals' colors are beginning to run, and you can't tell one from 't'other. Let's make the baby hippo swim ashore and tow us after him—he'll get us out of this, if anyone can!"

Ham was right. Drenched and chilled, they reached land at last. Next morning when they awoke, their first thought was for the Ark.

It had rained through the window while they slept, and the animals were wetter than ever. Maus his bright stripes, the zebra looked like a common donkey, the spotted leopard like a sickly Maltese cat. "We must give them some fresh paint," decided Davy, but their water-colors only made a bad matter worse.

"Let's wait and get Mr. Ticklemouse to help us tonight," said Dorfy.

"Well," answered Davy, wisely, for night seemed a long way off. "I suppose we'd better. I don't believe we've got the right kind of paint!"

ST. LOUIS CHIEF OF POLICE SUSPENDED.

Edmund P. Creedy

St. Louis—Chief of Police Edmund P. Creedy and Lieutenant Thomas J. McCormack, president of the St. Louis Relief association have been suspended. The charges against them were not officially disclosed, but it is said their suspension may be traced to the friendly relations between Creedy and John M. Healy, the Police Relief association's deposed secretary, before and after the beginning of the investigation of the relief association's affairs which has resulted in the indictment of Healy on a charge of embezzling $11,000 of its funds. The police board at a secret session today was informed, it is said, that Creedy was informed in the constant touch with the progress of the investigation, and that Healy and his wife called up Creedy by telephone almost daily.

Other suspensions are expected by those in close touch with the probe, to be announced, perhaps, tomorrow. Lieutenant McCormack, who succeeded John T. Nicolay, resigned, as association president, was for a time in charge of the investigation. When others took up the probe they found several pages torn from one of the books for the purpose, it is alleged, of destroying incriminating evidence. Reports have been published to the effect that the relief association shortage may total $100,000.

Creedy, who is ill with fever at his home, was formally deposed by Assistant Chief Christ Gillaspay, who was appointed acting chief. Creedy said: "I haven't an idea why I should be suspended unless somebody manufactured a charge against me. Don't sympathize. Rejoice with me. I've been dragged and harried for the three years I have been chief of police and have worked myself almost to death."

Creedy is a West Pointer, and a confederate veteran.

Masses Must Be Fed.

From the days of Joseph down the only well populated country which had enough grain to satisfy its own consumers was Egypt, rich beyond the record of any other soil this side of Paradise. Ferrero, in his history of Rome, shows the transcendent political importance of corn in all times. Feed your people, king, or denagogue, else they will overthrow you. For the masses from furthest antiquity to most recent days, there has never been any torch of dissatisfaction, rebellion and anarchy like a shortage of bread.

Veteran Skaters Still Lively.

Philadelphia boasts of having two of the oldest living skaters. On the first day that the ice was in condition the old-timers, William H. Wetherill and his brother Frank, 73 and 71 years old, respectively, made their annual appearance on Haverford college pond. They cut the figure eight and did other stunts that widened the eyes of onlooking youngsters.

FOR YOUR HEALTH'S SAKE

GENERAL INDIFFERENCE.

General indifference is not a good general to have in command in matters pertaining to health. It is not under such leadership that victories in the battle against disease and dirt are won.

In communities where general indifference is in the saddle there is likely to be a prevalence of diseases that are easily and surely preventable by the application of modern sanitary methods. In such cases, too, the people themselves pay the penalty.

But with general intelligence and general alertness running things, there is practically certain to be freedom from the known preventable diseases with the equally certain accompanying saving of money and of human life and suffering.

Bridesmaids.

Bridesmaids are due to brides' recognized need to have about them something old, something new, something borrowed, something blue. For where bridesmaids are at all old it makes them blue to see another girl married, and thus they can be made to serve a double purpose.

Three times a bridesmaid, never a bride, is an old saying, but there's not much in it. Like "thrice armed is he who hath his quarrel just," it is true in theory, but not in business. If a girl means business, in other words, it makes very little difference how many times she has been a bridesmaid. Bridesmaids are not a distinct species. Except that they wear bigger hats, they are much like other girls.—Puck.

Most Common Names.

The most common name in Ireland is Murphy. Smith leads in Scotland, England, Wales, New York, Philadelphia and Boston, while Johnson is ahead in Chicago and Steth comes second.

WOMAN'S PAGEThe Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

BUT, THEN, mothers are always terrible matchmakers," sighed the lady who had been telling me about the matchmakers of a mother who was trying to get a homey daughter married off.

Now, I think they aren't so much so nowadays as they should be. I think matchmaking is just as much a good mother's duty as getting her son started in a good business is a father's.

And I think that nowadays mothers are altogether too apt to ignore that duty.

There was a time when if a daughter didn't marry it meant that she was a failure, and a failure, moreover, who had to be supported by her parents.

Wherefore, in those days mothers lived up to their matchmaking duties with all their hearts.

Under present conditions the unmarried daughter, if she has made her way in the world, is not by any means regarded as a failure. Moreover, she is usually self-supporting and quite often contributes to the support of the family.

And as a result, the modern mother has relaxed from her predecessor's eager schemings to get her daughter well married.

In a good many cases she is even sorry when the daughter succeeds in getting herself well married.

"No you know, Mrs. Hastings feels just terrible about Margaret getting married," my news purveyor informed me the other day.

"You see, the man she is going to marry has a position way off somewhere, I forget just where, and Mrs. Hastings feels badly about Margaret's going off that she says she wishes Margaret had never met the man."

And the man Margaret is going to marry is a good man who loves her with all his big, manly heart, and whom she loves.

Don't you think that mother is wickedly jealous? I do.

It seems to me there is a terrible lot of jealousy written about the American mother trying to sell her daughter for wealth or a title. Of course, there is that class of mother, just as there is a criminal class, but I don't think one should be regarded as typically American, any more than the other.

What I mean by a matchmaking mother is a mother who makes a deliberate effort to help her daughter meet the right sort of man.

Who entertains the new young people of the neighborhood as much as she can afford to.

Who studies to make the entertaining so attractive that the desirable young men will want to come to the house often.

Who, when she is never careless in looking out for her daughter, allows the young people sufficient freedom to develop that comradeship from which the best kind of love grows.

Who gives her warmest, most gracious welcome to the honest, clean young man with no assets except brains and energy, but plenty of those, and turns her very coldest shoulder on the man with the wild oats record, however good his bank account.

She is terribly ambitious, this mother—but her ambition is for a righteous object—her daughter's best happiness.

Are you that kind of mother?

Or are you the kind that just sits back and lets her daughter do all the work that mother and daughter once shared, and then blames the daughter for not marrying the right kind of man?

SO ADAM COULDN'T HAVE EATEN IT.
William Tell was quite heroic,
But he had less cause to grieve,
Had he but shot the apple
From the head of Mother Eve.

Knowledge of What Is Best More Important Than Wealth Without It.

It must be apparent to every one that qualities of the highest order are necessary to enable the best of the products of modern commerce to attain to universal acceptance. PROVIDENCE GIVES TAFT A GRAND RECESSION

President is Loudly Cheered as He Moves Through Rhode Island City Streets.

Providence, R. I., Mar. 22.—This city, the home of Senator Nelson W. Aldrich, gave President Taft one of the most enthusiastic receptions on his arrival here that he has received since he was elected to that high station.

And Taft responded in kind. For the first time since he became president he adopted the old Roosevelt custom of standing up in his automobile as it crept slowly through the streets, waving his hat to right and left as he passed. Hordes of cheers greeted him from the jammed streets, all aglow with illuminations.

At the banquet given in honor of the president by the New England Manufacturers' Association, George H. Holmes, president of the association, in the opening address touched the popular chord when he referred to the president as "fearless, resolute and genial." The big body of a dinner and cheered uproariously.

President Taft was magnificently received when introduced. After a few preliminary remarks he plunged into the tariff and repeated that it was the best revenue producer ever passed and that it had materially reduced the duty rates. In general the president made the same defense of the new tariff law that he has made on other occasions and his remarks were lively applauded.

Both Senators Aldrich and Wetmore were present at the banquet.

COL. ROOSEVELT IS AT LUXOR.

His Journey is a Big Ovation for Ex-President.

Luxor, Upper Egypt, Mar. 22.—Col. Roosevelt and his party, which left Shellal for Luxor on the regular express train, arrived here on schedule time.

Before leaving Shellal Col. Roosevelt received August Krug, manager in Egypt for the North German Lloyd Steamship Company, with whom he discussed arrangements for the passage from Alexandria to Naples. As before announced, the Roosevelt party will sail on the steamer Prinz Heinrich March 29.

When the former president's party arrived at Assuan the platform was crowded with tourists, Egyptian officers and officials. The throng greeted the Roosevelts cordially and in turn was addressed briefly by Col. Roosevelt, who repeated in substance what he had said in his speeches to the Egyptian officers.

The express for Luxor was crowded with tourists returning to Europe. A special car had been provided for the Roosevelt family and they dined by themselves during the trip. The journey, which was dusty, was without special incident.

PREPARING FOR STATE STRIKE.

Head of Pennsylvania Federation Summons His Cabinet for Conference.

Philadelphia, Mar. 22.—The strike situation remains unchanged. There was no meeting of the Rapid Transit Company board of directors on account of the lack of a quorum.

Mayor Heyburn declared that he was through with the strike, as he had exhausted all his resources to bring about peace.

H. E. Greenawald, president of the state federation, before leaving for Wilkesbarre, sent the following telegram to the eight members of the executive council:

"Come to Wilkesbarre at once for executive council meeting to forward general strike."

OLDFIELD AFTER NEW RECORD.

Expects to Set a Hour of 150 Miles an Hour.

Daytona, Fla., Mar. 22.—Harney Oldfield, the "daredevil" driver who has a 200 horsepower Benz, is expected to make a record of 150 miles an hour in his speed monster at the races of the Florida East Coast Automobile Association which began at Daytona Beach today.

On the program are races at one, two, five, ten, twenty, fifty and one hundred miles for crews of all classes, but of course the most interest attaches to the prospective race between the speed kings. The races will continue tomorrow and Thursday. Many auto enthusiasts from all parts of the United States are here to witness the races. The car which Oldfield will drive cost $14,000.

When the Weight Is Too Light.

Eat more, drink more, sleep more. If you desire to take on more flesh, drink cocoa or chocolate with your meals, and plenty of water between them. Eat sweets, fat and starchy foods (including potatoes). Avoid tea and alcohol, excepting fruit.

ITCHING ECZEMA WASHED AWAY

Is it worth 25 cents to you to stop that awful, agonizing itch? Surely you will spend 25 cents on your druggist's recommendation, to cool and heal and soothe that terrible itching eruption?

By arrangement with the D. D. Laboratories of Chicago, we are able to make a special offer of a 25-cent bottle of their oil of whitegreen compound, known as D. D. D. Description, Call, or write or telephone to J. P. Baker, Janesville, Wis.

We absolutely know that the itch is stopped AT ONCE by D. D. D. Prescription, and the cure all seem to be permanent.

WATCH THE COMPLEXION

Entirely Cleared After a Few Applications of Psolam.

Where it goes is evidently not a very serious matter as long as the little red spot, blemish or other skin disfigurement disappears as quickly as it does after a few applications of psolam, the new skin remedy. A peculiar feature of psolam is that it is naturally flesh-colored and contains no grease, so that when used on the face for the complexion, or for pimples, red noses, or any other inflammations, blemishes or discolorations, its presence cannot be detected. It can thus be applied in the daytime, the natural color of the skin being immediately restored and the actual healing and curing process accomplished in a few days. Psolam can be had of any pharmacist who sells pure drugs, Smith's Drug Co., and the People's Drug Co., make a specialty of it. Fifty cents worth will answer either for the troubles mentioned or in curing ordinary cases of eczema, itching spots at once.

Any one who will write to the Emergency Laboratories, No. 32 West Twenty-fifth Street, New York, can receive by mail, free of charge, a supply sufficient to cure a small eczema surface or clear a complexion over night, and remove pimples in twenty-four hours.

New Model Awnings

Suitable for Residences, Flats,

Office and Hotel Buildings,

Factories, Hospitals and Institutions of all kinds

The attention of those using awnings is called to what is acknowledged by many architects, builders, and those in charge buildings, the greatest improvement in applying awnings, to residences or business buildings ever invented. Its simplicity of operation and absence of parts liable to get out of order, and the fact that any one with ordinary tools can put them up are points that will recommend it to any one that has ever had any experience with the old style awning.

They do not stick or jam and can be raised or lowered with out trouble or inconvenience to the operator.

They are especially recommended because of the ease and rapidity with which they can be taken down, and the small amount of room required to store them when not in season.

Should the necessity arise the covering can be replaced at one third the expense of the old style awnings.

Owing to its construction the material is at all times tightly stretched; no creases or folds can form and collect soil.

Its superiority over any other style of awning is that they do not disfigure or detract from the appearance of any building, leaving the entire window free when up; they shut out no light from the room, even when down, and being open on all sides, admit fresh air, which is very essential.

The fact that they are storm-proof is in their favor for no wind no matter how strong, can disarrange or destroy them even when down, no necessity or rushing to the window and raising them every time a storm arises. Being noiseless at all times even if left down at night, they will cause no annoyance or worry in case of sudden storm or wind. All iron parts are galvanized, which makes them perfectly rust-proof.

If you contemplate using awnings this season, drop us a card and we will have our representative call and demonstrate to you we have the best and cheapest awning on the market.

Three Coffee Reasons.

Coffee dangers, Coffee economy, and Coffee satisfaction offer three very important subjects. And all three of these points are completely immured in the coffee creation, and to prove it, everywhere is Dr. Shoop's "Health Coffee."

Health Coffee actually goes through three as a common Coffee. And remember, there is no grain of real coffee in it. Being made from purest roasted coffee, malt, milk, and sugar, it is a safe, healthy, and delicious drink, that is good for the stomach and fortifies, and invigorates either child or adult. And fits in with the flavor of the coffee.

Besides the fact that it is an invigorating food to all nervousness.

"Make it a habit to have Dr. Shoop's."

Do not induce your self or your child to use of common Coffee. Try the Health Coffee to see how it can help you.
